

2017 CaRVTA RVT of the Year Award

Calling all California veterinary staff!

Do you know of an outstanding RVT you think deserves to be recognized as the California Registered Veterinary Technicians Association RVT of the Year?

Nominate them today!

Simply write a quick email to info@carvta.org with a brief description of why you think this person exemplifies an outstanding RVT.

The winner will be chosen by the RVT of the Year Committee, and will win free registration to the Back To School Conference at UC Davis, July 22-23 in Davis, CA, along with a plaque commemorating their achievement and a cash prize, all courtesy of a generous sponsorship from Sentier!

So, nominate that amazing RVT today!!

What we're looking for:

The winner will be an RVT licensed to practice in California, and not just an outstanding RVT in practice, but one that goes above and beyond and gives back to the profession through teaching, volunteer work, committee work, etc. We all know someone deserving, nominate your impactful technician today!

Nominations will run through May,
and the winner will be notified June 1.
