

A WELL ADJUSTED PET

ILANA STRUBEL, MA, DVM, CVSMT, CCRT

Registered Veterinary Technician/Animal Rehabilitation Assistant

Job Location:	Pacifica, CA, 10 minutes south of San Francisco
Job Type:	Full Time or Part Time
Job Contact:	Julie at info@awelladjustedpet.com or 415-967-3861
Salary Range:	$20-$25 / hr. based on experience
Benefits:	available to discuss

Job Description:

Ideal candidates will have a minimum of two years' veterinary technician work experience including:

- patient care
- client communication and technical skills
- word processing
- digital records / practice software
- License / credentials for the state of CA
*desirable to also have certification or training/coursework completed in canine rehabilitation therapy, experience in rehabilitation therapy (CCRA/CCRP) - OR interest in pursuing certification in animal rehabilitation.

Duties include:

- performing intake procedures prior to treatment
- perform and document all rehab therapy treatments prescribed by the Rehabilitation Therapist
- client education
- assist with all maintenance of the physical rehabilitation center and equipment including the underwater treadmill cleaning

Animal Physical Rehab services that you may perform include:

- Therapeutic Laser
- ShockWave
- Underwater Treadmill
- E-Stim
- Manual Therapy/ Massage, and Therapeutic Exercises - as prescribed
- Additionally, you may be required to assist with preparing patients for Custom Orthotics or Prosthetics (we are OrthoPets SF- a US Clinic Partner).

A Well Adjusted Pet is a rapidly growing, stand-alone, animal physical rehabilitation & aquatic therapy center. Located within a comfortable canine gym setting we also offer holistic medicine such as Chiropractic, Acupuncture, Nutrition Response Testing, and Herbal Therapy. We are located within The Rex Center just 10 minutes from San Francisco.

We are dedicated to animal rehabilitation therapy for the recovery of injured or post-surgical dogs & cats. We also have treated rabbits.